ALL POETS START SOMEWHERE.

I STARTED AT FOUR.

Raised on punk, poetry & protest.

“

*I picked up my first guitar at age 4 in Atlanta — but I was a storyteller long before that. Now, as an artist and student of the craft, I build records piece by piece, blending soul, grit & melody into something [even] more. I perform, compose, and shape sound like language — making “poetry” in the records, scenes & spaces around me. A multi-instrumentalist / emcee at heart, I’m now stitching poetic threads across stages & timelines. This story is about gravity — join my renaissance as we leave it on the ground. ”*
